

PROYECT BID
Public Cleaning Services
Solid Waste Management for the Metropolitan City of Lima, Perú.

The purpose of the process is to have private operators with experience and technical and financial capacity to implement and provide modern services for public cleaning and solid waste infrastructure management. These operators should reach international standards in accordance with the existing regulations and under the best conditions of efficiency, quality and price. Also, they should implement technology to ensure an appropriate solid waste infrastructure management, sanitary and environmentally safe and responsible.

The public cleaning services and disposal of solid wastes in the metropolitan city of Lima is rendered to date by a concessionaire. The main services provided in the period 2010-2016 include:

- Collection and transport of household solid waste to the transfer plant,
- Collection and transport of commercial waste (markets) to the transfer plant,
- Collection and transport of debris,
- Operation of the transfer plant,
- Operation of the sanitary landfill,
- Street sweeping,
- Sweep of public squares,
- Washing streets, squares and public spaces.

Simplified award process schedule:

1. October 2017.- Council approval announcement publication of RFP and 1st Contract Version.
2. November 2017 to January 2018.- Round of inquiries and answers to the RFP and suggestions to the 1st and 2nd contract versions.
3. February 2018.- Publication of integrated RFP and contract final version.
4. March to April 2018.- Proposals reception.
5. April 2018.- Award of the Concession.

Key information of the Concession:

- Modality/mechanism.- Public-private partnership DFBOT1 self-sustainable
- Tenor: 10 years
- Operation estimated start date.- April 2018
- Estimated investment.- US $20 MM initial investment. US $18 MM reinvestment.
- The investments comprise of transport and waste collection equipment and units, cells, biogas plant, among others.
- Grantor.- Metropolitan Municipality of Lima / Government of Perú.
- Current operator solid waste operation (2016).- 635,600 tons per year.

- Public bid competitive variables.- Tariff discount, additional income participation, environmental care and reducing the emissions that cause climate change, technological innovation.

General Considerations:

- Proposals should consider modern, eficiente and environmentally sustainable management of solid waste service technologies,
- It must comply with international health and environmental standars, optimize environmental services processes and generate electricity,
- The proposed contractual arrangement is for a 10 years period concession.

Bidders & Bidding documents:

1. According to the bidding documents, bidders must pre-qualify crediting experience in the requested services, technical capacity for solid waste management, as wel as financial capacity to ensure investments.
2. The evaluation of proposals will be in two stages: Enabling technical proposal, for which mínimum technical requirements have been stablished and the economic proposal will define the winner based on financial and environmental factos.
3. The concession contract will be supervised base don performance indicators.
4. The bidding documents and competition mechanisms are available in the following link www.munlima.gob.pe/component/k2/12-obras/concurso-de-limpieza-publica